4TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME. Theme: He taught with authority...

Jesus teaches in the synagogue on a Sabbath day and his teaching makes a deep impression on the audience because, unlike the Scribes, he teaches with authority. While the Scribes engage in endless debates on the Law, the teaching of Jesus was based on himself as the Holy Son of God. His authority flows from the Father, the one who anoints Him and the Holy Spirit, who is anointing. The coming of the Kingdom is attested by the working of miracles by Jesus through the power of exorcism. This warfare between Jesus and Satan, between the Kingdom of God and kingdom of evil, is meant to strengthen our faith. However, the miracle of Jesus is sometimes an occasion of offence. (CCC#548)

The evil spirit knows whom Jesus is and already anticipates the imminent destruction of their kingdom of evil: "What do you want with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are: the Holy One of God". Jesus enjoins the evil spirit to be silent because the full revelation of the Holy One of God has not yet come. The people of Capernaum are so amazed at the power of God that they began spreading the good news over the whole region of Galilee.

At every liturgy of the Word, the church reminds us of the deep teachings of Scripture through the three readings and also invites us to encounter the miracle in the liturgy of the Eucharist.
