FOURTH SUNDAY OF ADVENT: Theme: "Of all women, you are the most Blessed..."

Like an interesting movie, we see the fourth Sunday of advent presenting us with the key personalities or actresses involved in the Salvation of God. The life of Mary and Elizabeth embodies the four virtues we meditate and celebrate during the Advent season with the candles; a life of Hope, faith, Joy and love. It is for her faith that all generations have called Mary blessed. By faith, Mary welcomes the tidings and the promise brought by the angel Gabriel. CCC# 148

It is in the spirit of Joy and Hope that the quiet and youthful Mary went to the ageing Elizabeth to share the good things done by the Lord. In coming to celebrate her cousin's good fortune, Mary brought grace and abounding love. The prophecy of the Prophet Micah about Bethlehem, the birthplace of Jesus, is important to us who recognize Jesus as the King and a Messiah, from the ancestor of David. Although Elizabeth was advanced in age she conceded that Mary, the younger person, occupies a higher place; "mother of my Lord". She said this not out of bitterness or envy, but in a rejoicing and sincere tone.

Mary, on the other hand, accepted the honour given to her by Elizabeth and immediately she also acknowledged the Lord for whom her soul magnifies. We Luke, therefore, presented the actors in God's salvation programme overflowing with joy.

May we lay down all our fears, sorrows and sins and welcome the newborn king with joy.
