FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME (Year A)

Humanity always stands in need of God. Our relationship with the Lord must always be characterised by total dependence, trust and reliance on God.

Jesus, the New Moses, addresses the crowds on a mountain about a new moral code. Jesus opens the Beatitudes with blessedness for those who are poor in spirit. The addition of the phrase "in the spirit" changes the emphasis from socio-economic to personal moral humility, detachment from wealth and voluntary poverty. The New English Bible renders this verse as: "How blessed are those who know their need of God", meaning, those depend on, trust and rely on God.

The meek are those who are slow to anger and gentle with others. Meekness, therefore, connotes a form of charity towards others. Mourners, as used by Matthew, are similar to those who hunger for justice. They mourn because of evil reigns on earth. They hunger and thirst rather for justice to reign. The merciful are those who pardon the sins of others. Surely, those who show mercy will have mercy shown them. Only the pure in heart will see God since He is all Holy. Peacemakers are those who seek the total well-being of humanity and the universe as a whole. Those persecuted for righteousness sake and on account of Jesus will surely receive their reward in heaven.

Let us not fill our hearts and lives with pride by relegating God to the background, for our lives are meaningless without any reliance or dependence on God in Christ Jesus. May Jesus Christ fill our hearts with boundless happiness.

Wednesday Evening Mass. Please note that there will not be Mass on Wednesday 1st February.

Emergency Calls. If your loved one is in Northampton General Hospital and needs the Sacrament of the Sick IN AN EMERGENCY please inform the nurses who will contact the on call Catholic Priest. If it is not an emergency and you would like a regular Chaplaincy visit for someone in hospital, please call the Cathedral Parish Office on 01604 714556.

Traidcraft. Liz will be holding a Traidcraft stall after 8am Mass at St Anselm's this morning. Please support this wonderful organisation.

Diocesan Directory 2017. These are now available at the back of the churches for £6.

Parish Team. Our Parish Team represents The Diocesan Shrine of Our Lady of Perpetual Succour and St Anselm. It was formed by Fr Damien in 2008 to support the parish and parishioners with general direction, property, finance and parish activities in general. Our role is not liturgical and this aspect is led by Fr Jerry with Deacon Peter supporting him. Deacon Peter has the spiritual responsibility for developing the activities of the Shrine. Our current team is made up of James Bellamy (Chair), Fr Jerry Manomey, Mary Brooks, Linda and Bernard Hewitt, Elizabeth Lewis, Pauline and Peter Osborne and Karen O'Rourke and we meet every six weeks. We are currently working on projects which include the internal redecoration of Our Lady's, significant electrical work at St Anselm's, ongoing maintenance of the Catholic cemetery and the reorganisation of the parish meal. We are waiting for a final decision on the removal of the sequoia tree at the entrance to the church and, when this decision is received, we will restart discussions with the Bishop in the summer on the longer term plans for the Shrine. Would you like to be contribute? Volunteering as a Parish Team member in the future, supporting activities or providing feedback/ideas. If so please contact Lorraine Foster, the parish admin assistant, e-mail: sacredheartchurch@btconnect.com or Tel: 01604 402301. Our next Parish Team meeting is on Monday 13 March 2017.

Parish Meal. We are pleased that our numbers are now over 50 for our parish meal on 1 February 2017. Tickets are still available either at the back of the church or through Karen O'Rourke (tel 07896 660113) or Pauline Osborne (tel 07590 378933). We will close ticket sales on Sunday 29 January when we need to confirm numbers to the restaurant.

Divine Mercy Talks. The theologian, author and director of the John-Paul II Institute in Massachusetts, Dr Robert Stackpole STD, is giving talks on the Divine Mercy message and devotion in four parishes of the Diocese.
